3. Level/year at which this course is offered:

The course can be taken at any level in the last two years of the program after passing the requirements.

4. Course general Description:

This course aims at introducing students to the fictional creations published during Queen Victoria's long reign (1837-1901). It will be particularly concerned with the development of the novel and its emergence as a popular literary genre that tackles some of the prominent issues of the age. Throughout this course, students will develop an understanding of the relationship between the socioeconomic and intellectual climate of the era and the issues raised by popular novelists such as Charles Dickens, the Brontës, Lewis Carroll, Oscar Wilde, and Arthur Conan Doyle among others. They will also tackle the emergence of some of the popular subgenres such as children's literature, Condition of England novels, science fiction and the social novel.

Note: Students will focus only on one of the key texts suggested in the list of topics. Other texts may be mentioned, but they will not be discussed in detail.
