Course Description

This course focuses on the principles of organizational design and development to achieve strategic goals and support organizational success. It examines the impact of change on organizational forms and deliberates the process of change through which adaptations are made to the ways in which structure, process and people work; the success of each is dependent on each other. It also examines the impact of change on working lives and the strategies for engaging employees and wider stakeholders in successful implementation. The unit also encourages reflection on the personal skills, techniques and behavior that support effective organizational design and development work
