Course Catalog Description

English Language (705101-74) is a single-level, English for General Purposes (EGP) course. All students who are admitted to the Department of Information Science (BA program) are required to take this course in the first semester of the first year of their program. The course is offered in 16 weeks with a 2-hour-per-week teaching plan covering the four language skills.

English Language (705101-74) intends to develop students' knowledge and ability of English language in all major skills which include reading, writing, listening, and speaking, as well as in sub-skills including grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. The course aims at preparing the students to advance their English to the English for Specific Purposes (ESP) level which is specialism specific and is offered in the second semester.

Performance Objectives

By the end of the course, the students are expected to be able to:

1. express themselves in everyday situations.
2. communicate via listening, speaking, and very basic writing.
3. differentiate between the correct usage and incorrect usage of English in grammar and vocabulary.
4. have confidence in sitting for assessment and evaluation.
