Course Catalog Description

English Language 4800170 – 6 intends to develop students' knowledge and ability of English language in all skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking as well as in sub-skills including grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. The course aims at preparing students admitted to the Common First Year Program to advance their English to the English for Specific Purposes (ESP) level which is specialism specific and is offered in the second semester. All students are required to successfully complete the English Language course before admission to their specialism related ESP course offered by the ELC.

Performance Objectives

By the end of the course, the students are expected to be able to:

1. demonstrate comprehension of simple and complex written texts at the B1 level through applying the skills of scanning, skimming, guessing from context and through recognizing linking words.
2. exhibit adequate comprehension of simple and complex spoken materials at the B1 level through recognizing key words, stress, intonation, pauses, and linkers in fast speech.
3. compose coherent/cohesive texts at the B1 level for various general and academic purposes through applying the skills of brainstorming ideas, composing an outline, and editing/revision.
4. communicate effectively in spoken language at the B1 level in tasks such as oral presentations, group discussion, expressing opinions, and short talks.
5. demonstrate an understanding of grammar at the B1 level, incorporating tenses, part of speech, modal auxiliaries, and sentence structure.
6. recognize and use lexical items such as words, collocations, and derivatives, both in general and academic contexts at the B1 level.
