

Consistency between University & college Missions

University mission
Is to teach and train students and human recourses in different fields and to play a significant role to provide educational, training, social and medical services in order to develop society, conduct research and to give solutions that are adequate for a modern society
	Key words	Provide significant education	Development of research	Development of the society
Collage mission	Achievement of objectives of higher education	√
	Development of scientific, practical and interpersonal skills	√
	Encouraging the faculty members to scientific research		√	√
	Participation in community service		√	√
	Translation and authoring scientific books	√	√

Collage mission:

"Achievement of objectives higher education, providing university education and graduate for faculty students with development of scientific, practical and interpersonal skills inside and outside the faculty. Encouraging the faculty members to scientific research, and to participation in community service, and expansion in the areas of translation and authoring scientific books"